Volunteer Agreement

This document is not intended to be a legally binding contract between us, and it may be cancelled at any time by either us or you.

1. You are a volunteer

The position of Bunny Caretaker at Adopt A Bunny Rabbit (here after AABR) is a volunteer position. This means that, if you accept the role, you perform all duties on a voluntary basis and you will not receive remuneration or payment for your work, other than reasonable reimbursement of expenses (see below at paragraph 9).

Neither AABR or its volunteers intend any employment or contractual relationship to be created (i.e. you are not an employee, independent contractor or consultant at AABR). If this changes at any time, and there is a possibility that you might undertake paid work for the AABR or be involved in vocational training, we will discuss this and document the arrangement in a formal employment contract, contract for services or other arrangement.

2. What you can expect when volunteering at AABR.

AABR values its volunteers and we will endeavor to provide you with the tools, supplies, and training that you will require to properly and safely assist you in working with our bunnies. Please make sure to ask any questions and request anything you feel you need to complete your tasks.

I choose to willingly participate in volunteering with AABR, and assume all risks stemming from my volunteer service to AABR.

By signing this form, I am acknowledging photo release permission for AABR.
